Testimonials

“I really enjoyed Allison’s talk because she considers all aspects of me. She looks at who I am, where I want to go and what shapes and colours I have. A truly holistic approach which I have not seen anywhere else. Her advice was honest and authentic and to the point. Her feedback supports my confidence and helps me to make bold and characteristic choices that totally fit me and my mission.”

– Marja Godvliet, Founder, Women Entrepreneur Club

“I especially appreciated how Allison incorporated psychological research and really aimed at empowerment. So often when you try to figure out style, you end up feeling defeated and inadequate because you don’t fit a particular mold. Allison’s seminar left me feeling invigorated and excited to discover how I can make what I have naturally work for me!”

– Ruby Snyder

“Allison’s presentation at Spark opened up so much for me. As mothers, we live with a lot of guilt about wanting to be individuals and pursue our passions. We are always balancing between career and motherhood. Allison’s admissions and being so very vulnerable in her speech allowed for me, and maybe more women, to be okay with it. AND, more importantly, to keep going forward!”

– Susan de Vriend, Spark! A Conference for Female Entrepreneurs
